JUDGE HUMPHREYS ON PROBATE CHARGES.

Says Estates Shall Not Be Eaten Up By Fees.

PROBATE BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

ESTATE OF JAMES A. KING,
DECEASED, READY FOR DISTRIBUTION.

Cecil Brown and H. Focke, Trustees of the Estate of James Gay,
File Their Annual Report.

A reduction of what he regarded as an excessive fee in a probate matter heard by Judge Humphreys yesterday, was the sensation of the day about the courthouse. A trifling estate came up for accounting and final distribution, in which, after the payment of the costs, there remained but $75 or $80 for the heirs. In some way the attention of Judge Humphreys was called to the fact that the attorney in the case had demanded a fee of $50. Judge Humphreys said he could not allow such a charge; that while he did not intend that his remarks should apply personally to the counsel in the case he desired it to be understood that he could not allow such charges in small estates—that fees must not be allowed to eat up estates. The fee of counsel was reduced to $30, the attorney gracefully accepting the reduction.

The firm stand taken by Judge Humphreys in protecting estates from the raids of officials and attorneys caused considerable surprise among practitioners and attaches, and in certain quarters consternation, if not indignation. Generally, however, the action of the judge was commended, and he will be called blessed by persons interested in matters pending in the Probate Court.

In the matter of the estate of Jose da Motta, Maria da Motta petitions the court to be appointed administrator. The estate is valued at $500, money on deposit in the Hawaiian Postal Savings Bank, $200 being deposited in trust for the petitioner. Da Motta died June 4, 1900, intestate, leaving, besides the widow, three sons as heirs—M. da Motta, Jose da Motta and Joaquin da Motta, all now of age.

In the matter of the estate of James A. King of Honolulu, Charlotte D. King, the administratrix, filed her petition for the allowance of her account, for her discharge from the trust and for a final order for the distribution of the estate before Judge Humphreys. The account filed showed that the total amount received from the estate was $3,508.87. The expenditures were as follows: Administrator expenses, $36.50; estate debts, $4,018.01; support of children, $48; commissions, $189.92; total, $1,292.44; balance, $2,216.44. The master's report showed the estate to be possessed of a half interest in a ten-year lease at a rental of $450 a year; household effects valued at $350; three mortgages aggregating $5,000 in value. Judge Humphreys set July 9 as the time for hearing the petition.

In the matter of the estate of Manuel Gomes, Jr., and Virginia Gomes, minors, application was made before Judge Humphreys yesterday that Cecilia Cordeiro and Antonio G. Cordeiro, grandparents of the minors, be appointed guardians. The application states that the mother is destitute; that deceased at death owned one hack, three horses and household furniture and that these need attention. Judge Humphreys fixed July 17, at 10 o'clock in the morning, as time for hearing cause why the application should not be granted.

In the matter of the estate of James Gay, H. Focke and Cecil Brown, trustees, filed their annual report. The principal feature of the report is the statement that 800 acres of land, formerly used as pasture, good only for six months in the year, had been leased under contract to the Waiwala Agricultural Company, Limited, to be planted to cane. In lieu of rental the estate is to receive 5 per cent of the sugar. It is estimated that the income from this deal will be from $6,000 to $8,000 a year. At date of report the estate owned 215 head of cattle, 28 horses and three mules. The ranch netted $4,420.76 last year. The income of the estate was $12,468.01; the expenditures, $12,558.14. Five thousand dollars were paid to W. O. Smith, guardian of the minors.

In the estate of Puanani affidavit of publication was filed. In the Supreme Court, before Frear, Chief Justice, Justice Galbraith and Circuit Judge Stanley, sitting in place of Justice Perry, absent, the case of A. G. Mericourt against the Norwalk Fire Insurance Company, was up for argument. It came up on exceptions from the Circuit Court, First Circuit. J. T. De Bolt appeared for plaintiff, and Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan for defendants. The day was consumed by the argument of Mr. Ballou, who cited many authorities. This case went over until 11 o'clock this morning.

In the action of the Kapiolani Estate, Limited, against Deborah Pohina and Pohina, her husband, defendants answer that they admit that the said Deborah Pohina is the owner in fee simple of one undivided half of the lands described in the complaint; they say they do not know of their own knowledge whether or not plaintiff is the owner and entitled to the possession of the other undivided half, and so neither admit nor deny the allegation in the bill of complaint. They also deny that it is impossible for the owners of said lands to agree among themselves on a division of said property.

HAWAIIAN TEACHERS' Association

Association Opened its Annual Meeting in High School Yesterday.

A meeting of the Hawaiian Teachers Association was held at the High School building yesterday afternoon. T. H. Gibson, president of the association, called the meeting to order and made a few remarks which touched on the work of the association after which a paper was given by Mrs. W. W. Hall, one of the commissioners of education. She emphasized the importance of doing well the work undertaken, whether in an outlying district or in the city of Honolulu, urging the teachers to an ideal in their habits and thoughts thus, placing before the pupils of the various schools some one to look up to and be guided by.

Dr. Sloggett read a paper on "Pond Life in and around Honolulu." The reading was very instructive and greatly appreciated by his audience. Following this interesting reading, Professor Scott spoke on the subject of "English as spoken." The subject produced quite a discussion the meeting finally being adjourned at 4:30.

There will be a meeting this afternoon at 2:30 at the High School when Professors Wood, Townsend and others will read some very interesting papers.
